

School Committees

Click Here for a Printable Version

St. Mary's School Advisory Board:

Saint Mary's School Advisory Board has as its primary concern the intellectual and spiritual development of all students who attend St. Mary's School.

Working in close collaboration with the Principal, and being sensitive to the voice of the local community, the Advisory Board develops policies that will enable the school to reach its goals and deal with the recognized needs of the community.

Home and School Association:

As its mission, the primary objectives of St. Mary's Home and School Association shall be to increase communication and cooperation between parents and educators in order to provide the best Catholic education for each child, to coordinate the spiritual and educational forces of the home and school; to offer, through enrichment programs, unique learning experiences for students, and information of particular interest to parents, to encourage the maintenance of high standards in family life and academic life, to create a greater appreciation for Catholic education; and to promote cooperation between all approved Archdiocesan organizations working for the advancement of Christian education in Catholic homes and schools.

For more information on SMS Committees, see the School Committees page.